Dear Heloise: I read your articles and I enjoy them very much. I missed your Beer Biscuits recipe and would like to have it.

I am a new wife and I love to cook and try new things.

Thank you. — Ruby Durel

For you and other readers who have requested this recipe, here it is.

Use two cups biscuit mix, one and one-half tablespoons sugar and six ounces of warm beer. Dissolve the sugar in the beer and then add it to the biscuit mix.

Mix and bake the biscuits as you normally would when using any prepared biscuit mix. If you wish to make them from scratch, just substitute the beer for any liquid called for in the recipe. Be sure to
